Am Robert and I love happy endings ... 25th November 2014 at Oslo Norway

What could I do without FNUR? I don't know! Maybe I could be dead and forgotten.

I am called Robert, am one of the first beneficiaries of FNUR when it was first established early this year.

I was attacked by a group of thugs who call themselves "The City Gate Keepers" it's a criminal gang but appreciated and respected in Uganda because they are fighting the gay persons. So when I was beaten up and left almost dead, there was no point in me reporting to the police, I just realized that it was time for me to run. I can't remember all the facts because I arrived in Nairobi Kenya in an Ambulance, I was treated at Imara Health Center and later the University Hospital the medical bill was in thousands of dollars and the FNUR was there for me.

My other friend I could call Rob, was also there for me. Luck was on my side, after completely healing and recovering I got a visa to France and still my airticket was paid by Rob. I settle in France and later on fell in love with Kristoffer and on Oct/14 we got married. In November because of my marriage ties with Kristoffer we moved to Oslo Norway.

My life has changed and I have hope and looking at the future. Thanks FNUR for all you have done for me. I love happy endings.

(Note: FNUR funded Robert's passage out of Uganda. Others paid his hospital bill.)
